CITIZENS FORUM

Gary Wang, practitioner of Falun Gong, provided information from the news (in the paper) about a death camp in China. He expressed his concern for victims in such camps, and the treatment of prisoners in China who are Falun Gong members. He asked for government investigation.

Stephanie Lee, San Jose resident and Milpitas business owner, said her sister was involved with Falun Gong in China, and claimed her sister was being kept against her will.

Jer Hsieh, age 14, spoke also about Falun Gong, and complained about treatment of Falun Gong followers in China.

A man, from Fremont, Falun Gong practitioner also, spoke about a concentration camp in China, with Falun Gong practitioners kept there in terrible conditions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mayor Esteves announced the very successful Job Faire held last Thursday evening and sponsored by the City, which was well attended (close to 450 visitors). It was an event undertaken to help inform people about job opportunities.

Mayor Esteves also mentioned that the City held a successful Cesar Chavez Day celebration at the Community Garden in Milpitas last Saturday. The event reminded the public about non-violent efforts made by Sr. Chavez.

Vice Mayor Gomez thanked Councilmember Giordano for the Job Faire, which came out of the Council's Finance Subcommittee. Staff deserved a lot of credit for the very successful event.
